$500 REWARD

Offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Cataract Remedy, for a case of Cataract in the Head which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARACT—Dull, heavy headache, especially in the morning, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are dimmed, and the sight is dimmed; in the ears, deafness, headache or congestion to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scales from the nose, and the mouth, and the tongue, "the taste of nothing"; the breath is offensive, smell and taste impaired, there is a sensation of discomfort, with mental depression, a hacking cough, dryness of the throat, and a sense of oppression, and other symptoms are liable to be present in any case. Thousands of cases annually, without a single fail of the above symptoms, are cured by a combination of the above remedies, and become more healthy, and dangerous or less dangerous by physical exercise.

By its mild, soothing and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Cataract Remedy can cure the worst case of Cataract in the Head.

Druggists every where; 50 cents.

"Told A Story from Cataract."

Prof. W. H. Hause, the famous mesmerist, of Boston, Mass., writes: "Some ten years ago I had a severe attack of cataract in my right eye.
My family physician gave me no assurance, etc., and said I must die. My eyes are much bad now, but every day, toward evening, I have a slight improvement, so that I could see about a quarter of a mile. In the morning it is difficult and distressing to get about without glasses. But Dr. Sage's Cataract Remedy has three months given me a well and the cure has been permanent."

Constantly Hawking and Spitting

THOMAS R. BURRIS, Esq., 2200 Pine Street, Philadelphia, Pa., writes: "Some ten years ago I had a severe attack of cataract in my right eye, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not sleep at night, and the cure was slow. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Cataract Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only safe remedy for cataract. I would trust no man but Dr. Sage, of Dr. Sage's Cataract Remedy, in three months I was a well and the cure has been permanent."

A complete Treatise on Cataract, giving valuable hints as to clothing, diet and other matters of importance, will be mailed, post-paid, upon address, on receipt of a two-cent postage stamp.
